

Which Division Do I Vote In?

The Rural Municipality of Cana No. 214

Municipal Elections

Eligibility to vote is determined by whichever of the following factors applies first:

1. The Division you live in:

- If you live in the RM of Cana, the division you are eligible to vote in is the division you live in

2. The Division you own assessed property in:

- If you do not live in the RM of Cana, the division you are entitled to vote in is the division you own assessed property in.
- If you own assessed property in multiple divisions, you are entitled to vote in the division with the highest total assessment. If the total assessment is equal, you are entitled to vote in the lowest numbered division.

3. The Division you hold a permit as the occupant of a trailer or mobile home

- The RM of Cana does not currently have any trailer or mobile home permits issued.

The division you are entitled to vote in according to municipal records is listed on your tax notice in the bottom right-hand corner under “Voting Division”