

Rural Municipality of Cana No. 214

Bylaw No. 7/2016

A bylaw prohibiting the breaking, cutting, filling, ploughing, draining or otherwise altering or damaging of roads or the destruction or removal of vegetation from roads.

The Council of the Rural Municipality of Cana No. 214 in the Province of Saskatchewan enacts as follows:

1. In this bylaw the expression "road" means any public highway within this municipality as defined by The Highways and Transportation Act, 1997, other than a provincial highway as designated pursuant to such Act.
2. No person shall break, cut, fill, plough or otherwise alter or damage a road or portion thereof in the municipality except by written authority of the council.
3. No person shall destroy or remove any vegetation on a road or portion thereof in the municipality except by written authority of council.
4. No person shall allow any and all water exiting a landowner's property by any means of drainage other than natural drainage going on, over or thru municipal infrastructure regardless of present development of road allowance must have authorization by resolution of Council.
5. Every person who contravenes any provision of this bylaw is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to:
 - a) A minimum fine of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000) to a maximum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) for the first offence; and
 - b) A minimum fine of Eight Thousand Dollars ($8,000) to a maximum of Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) for a subsequent offence.
6. A Voluntary payment in the reduced amount of Seventy Five Percent (75%) of the minimum fine shall be accepted if received within 14 days from the date of service of the Notice of Violation contained in Schedule "A".
7. That Bylaw No. 3/2014 is hereby repealed.
